

The Slow & Steady

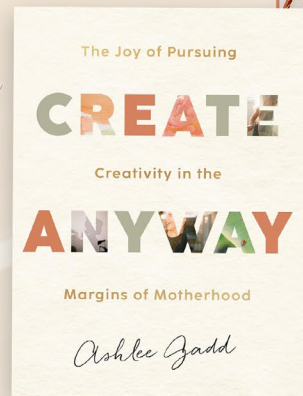

CREATE ANYWAY BOOK CLUB

GOOD FOR: Groups who—as the Aerosmith lyric goes—don't want to miss a thing.

THE VIBE: A relaxing slow deep dive across multiple gatherings, à la community group. Cue the highlighters and sticky notes! By combing through every chapter, groups will enjoy a plethora of rich and meaningful conversations, planting seeds for creativity (and friendship!) in the process.

EXTRAS:

Watch The Mother Artist Diaries to inspire extra discussion.

CREATE ANYWAY BOOK CLUB

Questions

1. How did you view creativity before reading this book?
2. Which chapter spoke to your heart the most?
3. Did anything in this book surprise you?
4. What permission slips do you need most in this season of life?
5. Have you ever experienced imposter syndrome in your creativity? What about in your motherhood?
6. When it comes to creativity, what do you fear the most?
7. In what areas do you struggle with comparison? Be gut-wrenchingly honest. How might you work toward throwing glitter in those very places?
8. When was the last time you suffered from a scarcity mindset?
9. Do you have any “ladybugs” in your life? Where have you witnessed God’s hand in your creative journey?
10. Do you struggle with accepting help? Why or why not?
11. Can you think of a time when you thought a circumstance would be a waste—of time, money, resources, etc.—but now, looking back, you can see how God wove meaning and purpose into that situation?
12. When was the last time you allowed yourself to play?
13. Has an obsession with metrics ever plagued your motherhood? What about your art?
14. How do you experience rest?
15. Where will you go from here? How will you create anyway?

BONUS: Speak a hidden creative dream out loud.